DYNAmore GmbH Gesellschaft für FEM Ingenieurdienstleistungen

DYNAmore GmbH, a company providing FEM engineering services, is the centre of excellence for consultancy, application, training, support and distribution of the LS-DYNA Finite Element (FEM) software package. The product portfolio comprises LS-DYNA, LS-OPT, LS-PREPOST, numerous vehicle occupant and barrier models, and add-ons complementing the range.

Our offering also includes reliable expert support in all relevant fields of application, as well as seminars, training events, FEM computation services and general consultancy and advice pertaining to structural dynamics. We are your first port of call for pilot and development projects to simulate non-linear, dynamic problems. In addition, DYNAmore provides consultancy and support for state-of-the-art, massively parallel computing systems.
