Seminars on request / in-house seminars
All courses can be individually compiled. We would be also happy to consider your special requirements. For example, the contents of seminars can be adapted to your company’s specific needs, or alternatively the course can be held parallel to a project selected by you. We are also pleased to give seminars on your premises. Please get in touch with us.

Seminar fees
See seminar description. All seminar fees quoted are per participant and seminar and do not include statutory value-added tax. Seminar fees are due on application and include seminar documents, drinks during breaks and lunch. In the case of individual training courses, we also take the liberty of calculating the preparation time.

Reductions
We give a 50 % reduction to members of universities and public research institutions. Students may attend the seminars if there are vacancies (please show your enrolment certificate). We charge a contribution fee of € 50 per day.

Course times
Seminars: 9:00 - 17:00 (unless otherwise indicated).
Information days: usually 13:30 - approx. 17:00.

Speakers
Seminars are only given by experienced experts.

Language
Unless otherwise stated, all seminars will be given either in German or English language on an on-demand basis at short notice. Please indicate your preferred language during registration.

Cancellation of a seminar by a participant
Up to one week before the start of the seminar: no charge
Up to two days before the start of the seminar: 50 %
Non-attendance: complete seminar fee
Substitute participants will be accepted.

Cancellation of a seminar by the organizer
If less than four applications without reduction were received, we reserve the right to cancel a seminar. In such a case, all participants who have applied for the course will be notified at the latest one week before commencement of the seminar.

Registration
Please apply either using the registration form on page 61 or register online under www.dynamore.de or just send us an email to seminars@dynamore.de. You will be sent a registration confirmation as well as information regarding directions and hotels. Please note, that all seminars and the seminar language will be confirmed separately.

Data protection and competition law declaration of consent
With your registration you allow us the use and the processing of your data for the seminar organization and for promotional purposes. You may at any time revoke these commitments. For this, please contact DYNAmore GmbH by fax, telephone or in writing.
